State Senate Sends Bill Into Committees and Present Chance Is Not Bright

OBJECT TO METHODS AND NOT TO MEASURE

Blighton Affair Is Ended and Investigation of "Slush Fund" Is Officially Closed

BISBEE REVIEW BUREAU, ROOM 5. Western Union building, Phoenix, Ariz, April 9 - (Special) - The gov ernor today sent to the senate for confirmation the names of John Hen-nessy, of Flagstac; William Morgan, of Lakeside, and Fred T. Coulter, of Springerville, to be members of the sheep sanitary commission, also the prison officials heretofore announced, and the boards of the state educational institutions. The retiring live stock sanitary comission met today and the new board will file bonds and assume office to morrow. Temporarily, Charles Howe will serve as secretary of the livestock commission, but it is generally understood that he will later be succeeded by Haylor Shannon, of Clifton. Woman's Suffrage Hard Hit covery of the woman suffrage bill which passed the house yesterday, it received a body blow in the senat this morning, when friends of th measure stood by without protest, a lowing the bill to be sent to the con mittee on constitutional amendment not to be reported back to the sen-ate until April 23. After it was too late, and the motion had been car-ried, it was realized that possibly the skidoo number meant something. At any rate, the bill has been put off for the present, and the agreement also includes further consideration in the senate of the suffrage bill, but

Opposition is to Method There was a feeble effort to make the consideration of the bill at an earlier date, by Schator Hubbell, who suggested April 19, but he only mus tered four votes for his suggestion, while on the later date fourteen agreed.
